1. General Information

National Institute of Design (NID) is an 'Institute of National Importance' as per the NID Act 2014 as well as an autonomous Institute under the Department for Promotion of Industry and Internal Trade (DPIIT), Ministry of Commerce & Industry, Government of India. As per the NID Act 2014, the Institute is a statutory authority empowered to award its own degrees—presently offering Bachelor of Design (B.Des.) of four-year duration, Masters of Design (M.Des.) of two-and-a-half year duration and PhD in Design. The Institute is also a member of the Association of Indian Universities (AIU).

Admission to all the programmes at NID is on the basis of the candidates' performance in the two-stages of Design Aptitude Test. The objective of these exams is to assess the knowledge, skills and behavioural abilities of candidates.

Stage 1: Design Aptitude Test (DAT) Prelims

Design Aptitude Test (DAT) Prelims will be conducted at various test centres across India (Refer Section 7.3 of this document). Candidates should note that appearing for the DAT Prelims or being shortlisted for second stage of admission process does NOT guarantee automatic entitlement to admission.

Stage 2: Design Aptitude Test (DAT) Mains

Candidates shortlisted after the DAT Prelims will be invited to appear for the Stage 2 DAT Main exams at one of NID's campuses in Ahmedabad, Bengaluru or Gandhinagar.

Note:

- Candidates are fully and solely responsible to provide correct information during the application process. If it is found that any information provided by the candidate is not true, NID has the right to cancel, at any stage, the candidate's application or admission in accordance with its rules and regulations. Any direct or indirect attempt to influence the management and employees of the Institute will lead to automatic disqualification of the candidate.
- The Institute has the sole prerogative to determine the procedure for each cycle of admission. In case of any matter not covered in this handbook, NID's decisions shall be considered final and binding to all the parties concerned.

NID will not provide accommodation for candidates appearing for the DAT Mains; the candidates must arrange travel/accommodation at their own cost.

7.6 Weightages of DAT Prelims & DAT Mains for Final Result

The final marks of the candidate appearing for the M.Des. programme of the National Institute of Design, will be calculated based on the weightages of the marks obtained in the DAT Prelims and DAT Mains as follows:

Programme/Test	DAT Prelims	DAT Mains
M.Des. (all disciplines)	30%	70%

Note: Only candidates who have appeared for all the tests in both the stages will be considered eligible for the Merit List.

8. Announcement of Results

In order to be considered for the merit list, a candidate must have appeared for both, the DAT Prelims and the DAT Mains.

8.1 Results for DAT Prelims:

Based on the scores obtained in the DAT Prelims, separate merit lists shall be prepared for each category applied for by the candidate. Results for admission to NID for the Academic Year 2020–21 for the M.Des. Programme (including overseas candidates) will be declared only on the official admissions website (<http://admissions.nid.edu>) as per the schedule announced in Section 2 of this document. The candidates' scores will also be available for viewing at this time. Separate result score cards (digital or hard copy) will NOT be provided to the candidates.

In case the total marks scored by two or more candidates are the same, the following tie-break policy will be used for awarding ranks:

- (i) Higher rank will be assigned to the candidate who has obtained higher marks DAT Prelims (Part B).
- (ii) If this does not break the tie, higher rank will be assigned to the candidate who has obtained higher marks in DAT - Prelims (Part A).
- (iii) If this still does not break the tie, then both the candidates will be assigned the same rank.

8.2 Rechecking of DAT Prelims Exam:

1. Requests for rechecking the answer booklet of the DAT Prelims can be submitted ONLINE ONLY on the official website <http://admissions.nid.edu>
Rechecking will be restricted to–
 - (i) Whether all the answers have been marked.
 - (ii) Whether there has been any mistake in the totaling of marks for each question in Part II of answer booklet and transferring the marks correctly onto the first cover page of the answer booklet.
2. No other re-evaluation of the answer script or other work done by the candidate as a part of the examination will be carried out.
3. No candidate, person or organization shall be entitled to claim re-evaluation or disclosure or inspection of the answer scripts or copies of it and other documents as these are treated as most confidential by the NID Admission Cell.
4. On rechecking the answer booklet, if it is found that there is an error, the marks will be revised accordingly.
5. The communication regarding the revision of marks, if any, shall be sent to the requesting candidate's registered email id ONLY.
6. The Institute will not be responsible for any loss or damage or any inconvenience caused to the candidate consequent to the revision of marks and no claims in this regard shall be entertained. The revised score after rechecking will be considered final.
7. Any rechecking re-checking request will not be processed if submitted without a scanned copy of the Admit Card duly signed by the invigilator and with the seal of the test centre.

Rechecking request will not be accepted over email and have to be submitted by the candidate online only at the official website of NID.

8. The details about “How to submit the rechecking request” will be available on the official website of admissions at a later stage.
9. The fees for rechecking of DAT Prelims paper for each discipline is Rs.2000/-.

8.3 Candidates shortlisted for DAT Mains:

Based on the Merit list of DAT Prelims, a certain number of candidates for each discipline will be shortlisted to appear for DAT Mains. If the total scores of two or more candidates in the DAT Prelims are the same, higher rank will be decided based on the tie break policy. The number of candidates shortlisted will be no less than three times in each category applied for by the candidate in the respective disciplines. Please refer to Section 3 of this handbook to see the total number of seats available.

8.4 Final Merit List:

The final merit list for each discipline of the M.Des. Programme will be generated category-wise (Open, GEN-EWS, OBC-NCL, SC, ST and PwD), based on the sum total of the weighted scores obtained by the candidate in each stage of the admission process, namely the DAT Prelims and DAT Mains. Separate merit list will be prepared for Overseas candidates.

Common merit list will be generated based on the percentile score.

Results for admission to NID for the academic year 2020–21 for M.Des. Programme (including Overseas candidates) will be declared ONLY on the official admissions website (<http://admissions.nid.edu>) as per the schedule announced.

The candidates’ scores and ranks will be available for viewing on the website and candidates will have to log in to the site to view their final results. Separate result scorecards (digital or hard copy) will not be sent/provided to the candidates.

In case the total marks scored by two or more candidates are the same, the following tie-break policy will be used for awarding ranks:

- (i) Higher rank will be assigned to the candidate who has obtained higher marks in DAT Mains.
- (ii) If this does not break the tie, higher rank will be assigned to the candidate who has obtained higher marks in DAT Mains- Studio test.
- (iii) If this does not break the tie, higher rank will be assigned to the candidate who has obtained higher marks in Stage 1 Design Aptitude Test.
- (iv) If this does not break the tie, higher rank will be assigned to the candidate who has obtained higher marks in Stage 1 Design Aptitude Test Part B.
- (v) If this does not break the tie, higher rank will be assigned to the candidate who has obtained higher marks in Stage 1 Design Aptitude Test Part A.
- (vi) If this does not break the tie, higher rank will be assigned to the candidate who has obtained higher marks in the question of DAT Mains exam which carries maximum marks.

The scores obtained during the application process in 2020–21 cycle are valid for admission only for the academic year 2020–21 and for admission only to NID. Scores obtained in NID's DAT exam cannot be used by any person/institution without prior permission of National Institute of Design.

Allotment of seat will be purely based on the preference of discipline filled in by the candidate at the time of submitting the application form.

In case a candidate has applied in two disciplines and gets shortlisted in both the disciplines, then the candidate will be allotted a seat in the discipline marked as first preference ONLY and their seat in the discipline marked as preference 02 will be allotted to the next candidate in order of merit. Such candidate will not be able to claim their seat (in the discipline marked by them as preference 02) at any later stage of admission process.

In case a candidate has applied in two disciplines and gets shortlisted in only the discipline marked by them as preference 02, then the candidate will be allotted a seat in the discipline marked by them as preference 02.

Note: Obtaining a rank in the merit list does NOT guarantee admission to the programme of your choice.

8.5 Minimum Qualifying Criteria

Candidates from the various categories will be considered eligible for admission only if their percentile score is above the minimum qualifying criteria (to be announced at a later date).

In the OBC-NCL category if seats are left unfilled due to no eligible candidates as per the minimum qualifying (which will be announced at a later date) or unavailability of candidates, the seats will be de-reserved and will be allotted to candidates from the Open category. Seats remaining vacant under the GEN-EWS, SC and ST categories will NOT be allotted to candidates belonging to other categories.

It must be noted that the category chosen by a candidate at the time of submitting the application form will be considered as final, and requests for change of category will not be entertained.

* Amendments to the minimum qualifying criteria if any, will be updated on the official website <http://admissions.nid.edu> only in the Amendment Section of this Handbook.

8.6 Allotment of seat

The procedure of allotment of seat for M.Des. Programme will be conducted at Ahmedabad. Each candidate will be required to remain present in person with the requisite documents as per the schedule (which will be announced at a later date). Failing to report with the requisite documents as per the schedule will lead to forfeiting the candidate's seat and their seat will be allotted to the next eligible candidate in the order of merit. Allotment of seat will be purely based on the preference of discipline filled in by the candidate at the time of submitting the application form.
